Application for exemption by attainment from ELTU1001

Based on the admission records transferred/submitted to CUHK, you are eligible to apply for exemption from ELTU 1001 by this system function. The exemption to be granted is for the related course ONLY. Students who are exempted from the course are required to take 1 unit of specific language enhancement course and other courses for fulfilment of the overall units for graduation as specified for their study programmes.

I have read the above information and would like to submit application for exemption by attainment from ELTU1001.

SUBMIT

6. If the application is successfully submitted, a system generated reply will be shown. The record will then be updated to CUSIS in due course.
